

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASEHENRY SCHEIN TO HOLD MEDICAL EDUCATION
AND EQUIPMENT EXPO AT THE MELVILLE MARRIOTT*Practitioners Can Earn Continuing Education Credits and See the Newest Equipment and Practice Management Solutions on Display

MELVILLE, NY (Sept. 6, 2013) - Henry Schein Medical, the medical group of Henry Schein, Inc. (NASDAQ:HSIC), will host an Education and Equipment Expo on Wednesday, October 9 at the Melville Marriott.

The Education and Equipment Expo is a series of expos that Henry Schein Medical holds annually across the U.S. to provide medical practitioners with information, equipment, products and services that can help improve the quality of care they offer their patients and enhance the efficiency and profitability of their practices.

Seminars for which practitioners can earn CME and CEU credits include:

- "ICD-10, How To Code It"- This seminar will explain ICD-10 regulation and HIPPA's wide ranging administrative simplification provisions. It will also cover the differences between ICD-9 and ICD-10, how to navigate the new ICD-10 format as well as how to use two different coding systems simultaneously. This seminar will prepare your practice with the tools that it needs to meet these challenges.
- "Is An ACO The Way To Go For Your Office?"- An in-depth insight on the establishment of Accountable Care Organizations (ACOs) and the ongoing healthcare reform. This seminar will discuss difficulties ACO's face during implementation, as well as solutions to help overcome those challenges. Issues such as, innovative payment models, performance measurements, delivery system reform, clinical transformation, and engaging patients in medical care will also be addressed.
